Visit to two south Carmarthenshire gardens

Wednesday 5 July 2023 £10 per person

Y Plas, Llansteffan 11.00am

Former owners of the splendid Palladian mansion with a view towards the castle include Sir John Williams (of National Library fame) and Lord Kilsant. Our visit explores the 4-acre sloping walled garden to the south, courtesy of Mr Wyn Jones. Gardening activities in its heyday are vividly described in Lady Hamilton's 1879 diary. Stout footwear recommended.
Bring a picnic OR explore eating places in Llansteffan village.

Coomb Mansion, Llangynog 2.30pm

The Victorian domestic Gothic mansion was formerly a Cheshire Home – as local signage still usefully indicates. Its setting includes rolling lawns and handsome trees, but in terms of garden architecture the highlight is the Arts-&-Crafts landscaping leading from the house to the Kitchen Garden. Courtesy of Robin and Pauline Cammish, we will also have a tour of the recently restored and refurbished house.
TEA will be served.
